OSTC Information Night

Please review the attachment for information regarding student enrollment in OSTC programs. There are many great opportunities provided through career technical programming. The Virtual Information Night will be held October 28th.

Updates from GSC

Groves Student Congress is hosting our second annual Trunk or Treat event on Thursday, October 28th. Students can earn two hours of community service by volunteering to pass out candy at the event.

Here is a link to get more information and sign up! <https://m.signupgenius.com/#!/showSignUp/10c0d44ada72ba2f9c70-trunk>

If families have younger students (PreK-5th) or family/friends who would like to participate as a trick-or-treater, they may sign up through the link below. All participants must sign up before attending. Families may choose to come during one of the following slots: 5:45 to 6:30 PM, or 6:45 to 7:30 PM. More information is included in this link: <https://m.signupgenius.com/#!/showSignUp/10c0d4eaaa92fa1ffc34-trunk>

Debate Team Results

Groves varsity debaters Ben Glick and Lily Schafer won their second tournament in a row, placing first at the Windy City Invitational, sponsored by Northside Prep in Chicago, Illinois on the weekend of October 15-16, 2021. Ben and Lily were 4th and 7th individual speakers, defeating the host school in the last elimination round on a 3-0 decision of the judges. The tournament was held virtually. Also representing Groves in the varsity division were Eleen Laham and Alaina Williams.

Novice debaters Gabe Farber, Christina Jones and Mali Rencher participated in a two-round scrimmage with Berkley HS at the same time. Berkley is now coached by former Groves faculty member and BEA President Scott Warrow, whose daughter debates for Berkley. Groves is scheduled to compete at the University of Michigan's National Invitational for both varsity and novice debaters in the first weekend of November.

Groves Athletic Updates

Groves Men's soccer 🏆 team defeated Farmington last week in an 8-0 mercy on our home field. They advance to the district semifinals TONIGHT at West Bloomfield. Tickets sold at the gate. If they win, they will play in the district final at West Bloomfield on Friday at 6. Go Falcons! 🏆🏆

Birmingham Unified Gymnastics

We will be having our parent/gymnast meeting on October 27th at 6:30 PM in the Commons at Groves. All the information you will need will be discussed at the meeting. Thank you!
