Hello Groves Families,

I hope the first day of online classes has gone well. As mentioned in an earlier email, teachers all will be observing 'office hours' beginning on Monday. Office Hours are an opportunity to check in with teachers for a 30-45 minute discussion centered on what has been happening in the Google classrooms. New material will not be presented during office hours. Here is a grid describing their availability:

From our counseling department:

If a student would like to cancel their AP exam they would need to follow the process below. It is optimal for them to be canceled as soon as possible so refunds aren't delayed. If you have any questions please contact Mr.
