Hello Groves Families,

Day 2 of the online class rollout and I'm hoping all is going well for your students. I'm told that there is a terrific turnout of students in the online classrooms and that there is a lot going on. Thanks for encouraging your students to sign in and engage the learning opportunities that are being offered in their classes.

As you've seen, I've used this Enews platform to highlight senior sports teams (thanks to senior class president Nolan Kamoo for providing this). Along with senior athletes, today we are also recognizing the seniors on our award-winning debate team:

The senior members of the Groves Varsity Debate Team are Sathvik Rajagopalan, Kevin Gruich and Luke Lee. Kevin and Sathvik were State of Michigan Varsity semifinalists and broke to the elimination rounds at a national invitational at Lexington (MA) HS. They also placed second with a 4-0 win/loss record at the West Bloomfield Invitational, and were first (Kevin) and second (Sathvik) speaker at state varsity finals. Luke was the Junior Varsity State Champion and placed as second speaker. Congratulations and wishes for continued success to these talented debaters.

And today, we highlight our eleven seniors on the men's baseball team: Aerik Joe, Sam Shienbaum, James Berry, Aidan Davis, Caleb McKeever, Ben Klein, Will Hess, Mike Brown, Charlie Meilinger, Ethan Gilman, and Eli Turner have all been an active part of the Groves baseball program during their high school careers. We wish them the best in their future endeavors both academically and athletically. The Class of 2020 appreciates your hard work!
