Good Morning Groves Families,

I hope that all Groves' moms had a wonderful day yesterday.

Speaking as a father of three, I can definitely vouch for this bit of wisdom from Susan Harris of the Golden Girls:

"It's not easy being a mother.
If it were, fathers would do it."

As you probably know, at the end of the school year, the senior class presents a gift to the school. This year's seniors would like you to have input in this decision – please go to this link to provide them with your ideas:

Speaking of seniors, here's a few things to look forward to:

May 21st : Bus delivery of all things seniors to homes. Administrators will be on four school busses and will visit each senior's home. PLEASE review your contact information in Powerschool. If the address is incorrect, please either correct it or contact me for assistance.

May 28: Virtual Honors Convocation

May 31: Virtual Graduation celebration

July 28 + 29: Possible live commencement ceremonies at Ultimate Soccer depending on state guidelines

I hope you have a terrific week – despite the weather.

Stay Safe and Well,

Jim Moll
Interim Principal
